

CLAYTON COUNTY RECOGNIZES
JUDITH S. BRADBERRY
FOR COMMUNITY ACTIVISM

- WHEREAS: Judith S. Bradberry is an involved and dedicated resident of the Elon Farm Subdivision located in Jonesboro, Georgia and is a native of Augusta, Georgia; and
- WHEREAS: Judith S. Bradberry is proud of her community and takes great pride in supporting the county by doing her part and going above and beyond; and
- WHEREAS: Mrs. Bradberry became an inaugural member of the Friends of Independence Park Committee, working tirelessly with Commissioner Shana M. Rooks and Director Detrick Stanford of the Clayton County Parks and Recreation Department, by participating in developing ideas to better the park and the community around it; and
- WHEREAS: Mrs. Bradberry has initiated her own personal charge in cleaning up her community along Point South Parkway. She is often seen picking up trash along the roadway and “dumpster diving” if she has to find the identity of persons illegally dumping trash in our county; and
- WHEREAS: Judith is a dedicated organizer and volunteer providing proactive community support in the organization of spring clean-ups and countless non-official roles of participation with her Elon Farm Homeowners Association; and
- WHEREAS: The Clayton County Board of Commissioners recognizes and honors Judith S. Bradberry for her outstanding commitment to the community; now
- THEREFORE: I, SHANA M. ROOKS, Commissioner, on behalf of the Clayton County Board of Commissioners, do hereby call on all citizens to join me in recognizing Judith S. Bradberry for her Community Activism. Through the dedication of citizens, such as Judith, our communities are able to thrive and Clayton County is a better place in which to live, work and play.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of Clayton County, Georgia to be affixed this 7th day of April in the year two thousand fifteen.

Shana M. Rooks, Commissioner